Brief Happenings From Various Sections of State.

THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS

Transpiring in "The Land of Flowers." Things "Boiled Down" to Suit the Busy Reader—Items of Interest to All Classes.

John J. Pelot is the new mayor of Bradentown.

Key West has a new weekly paper that will soon be merged into a daily.

St. Augustine is discussing an electric lighting plant to cost upwards of $45,000.

Osteen celebrated May 1st with dancing, horse racing and a general good time.

The Florida Ice and Cold Storage Company of Tampa has been incorporated with $30,000 capital.

Whew! It has come at last. Jacksonville is to have a loud smelling tannery with $30,000 capital.

It is estimated that the timber in Taylor county is worth twenty million dollars, and there is lively bidding for it.

Sumterville must be getting wild and woolly. A batch of six men have been licensed to each carry a rifle and pistol.

M. E. Broome, the new mayor of Live Oak, and the entire list of city officers elected are said to be progressive. Look out for Live Oak.

Unless the board of pardons intervenes, Simon Reyes, the Key Wester convicted of murder, will pay the penalty with his life in a few days.

Avery G. Powell, besides attending to his duties as editor of The Lake Butler Star, is managing a home-talent theatrical company and the Lake Butler band.

A shooting affray at Tampa may result in the death of Capt. Charles A. Park. Harry Bomford, who was arrested, said Park fired first. It is a family affair in which Mrs. Park figured.

Sheriff Bennett of Bradford county will not abide lawlessness. A party of noisy negroes was run in by him a short time ago and fined from $2 to $10 each for drunkenness and using obscene language.

H. Loring was shot in the leg by J. W. Watson. Both live at Orange Park, and Watson says he did the shooting because Loring made indecent proposals to his wife. He also says Loring started for him with a knife.

J. A. Haisten, after an absence of several days in Gainesville for the purpose of recuperation, returned Sunday last and is at his post again waiting on customers for S. F. Travis & Co.—Cocoa and Rockledge News. They will come to Gainesville for health and recuperation.

The next meeting of the Florida Medical Association will be held at Gainesville, which is developing into quite a convention town. Gainesville is one of the most attractive towns in the State. It has wide streets, fine shade trees and beautiful yards around handsome homes—DeLand News.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and lagrippe. At drug stores, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

CONSUMPTION

YOUNG WIFE COMMITS SUICIDE.

No Cause Assigned for Deed—Leaves Husband and Children.

Tifton, Ga., May 6.—Mrs. J. E. Gary committed suicide at her home in Alabama by taking carbonic acid and another poisonous drug.

About 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon she sent for one of her neighbors and told her that she had taken the drug. Immediately after she fell to the floor in a convulsion. She regained consciousness, and though medical aid was summoned, she was too far gone to be revived and died within 30 minutes.

There can be no cause assigned for the young woman's deed. She was the picture of health and so far as known had no troubles. Several times she stated that her reason for taking her own life was because she was tired of living.

Mrs. Gary was about 25 years of age and leaves two children and a husband.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer with rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by all druggists.

Shouldn't Marry Divorced Person.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 6.—The divorce question was brought up in the Tennessee diocesan convention of the Protestant Episcopal church when references were made to the failure of the Tennessee general assembly, recently adjourned, to enact legislation restricting the divorce evil. Rev. Thomas D. Windlate, of Memphis, precipitated the question in reporting that nothing had been done in the way of divorce legislation, but the work of the clergy promised results. Rev. Dr. Claiborne asserted that no Episcopal minister should marry a divorced person, and made a motion to this effect. It received no second.

Juggling With Dynamite

Is no more dangerous than to neglect kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and has cured many severe cases after other treatment has failed. It builds up the worn out tissues and restores health and vigor. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis of Mt. Sterling, Iowa, "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure." Sold by J. W. McCollum & Co.

Davis Nominated for Congress.

Cumberland, Md., May 6.—The Democrats of the second West Virginia district at Keyser, nominated for congress to succeed Alton G. Dayton, Republican, Colonel Thomas B. Davis, aged 77. Colonel Davis is the only brother of Henry Davis. He is a millionaire banker and horseman owning half-mile private tracks. Davis is very vigorous, and when Senator Campbell put him in nomination he said his subject disproved the Osler theory. Colonel Davis said he would run, because the Democrats had been so good to him and his brother. The special election occurs June 6.

Minister Sails for Orient Port.

Seattle, Wash., May 6.—Before the steamship Minnesota sailed for the Orient from Port Townsend, where she stopped for repairs, after leaving Seattle, the Great Northern Steamship company's officials changed her clearance papers so as to designate Shanghai as the port for which she sailed. When the Minnesota cleared from Seattle it was for Yokohama, and it is thought this latest act was due to fear of interference from Russian cruisers.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. See at all drug stores.

Panama Governor Relieved.

Washington, May 6.—Secretary Taft today cabled General Davis at Panama to return at once to the United States, placing Colonel Gorgas in charge of the administration of the canal zone until the arrival there of Governor Magoon. Governor Davis is suffering from malaria and his physicians advised him to leave the isthmus. He has resisted their appeals, however, fearing that his sudden departure at a time when the health conditions on the isthmus are adverse, would be misunderstood.

Helen Post to Face Jury.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 6.—Attorney General Moody has ordered District Attorney Stripling to proceed with another trial against Helen Wilman Post, convicted of using the mails for fraudulent purposes and sentenced to one year and one day. Mrs. Post had appealed the case and in view of the opinion of the appellate court in remanding the case for trial, that the ability to heal by mental science could not be questioned by the court, it was thought that the case would be dismissed.

People Injured in Collision.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 6.—A collision between two Wheeling Traction company cars in Bridgeport, O., opposite this city seriously injuring a number of persons. The northbound car was loaded with about 30 workmen, who were going to the glass factory at Martin's Ferry. Several of these men were on the running board and were caught when the southbound car jammed against the side of their car. The injured are all residents of Bell-air, O.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at all drug stores; price 50c.

THE BELTED PLAID.

This Was the Original Dress of the Scottish Highlander.

The original dress of the highlander was the belted plaid. This was a piece of tartan cloth, two yards broad and four long, which was drawn around the waist in nicely adjusted folds and tightly buckled with a belt. The lower part came down to the knees in much the same manner as the modern kilt, while the upper part was drawn up and adjusted to the left shoulder, so that the right arm might be perfectly free. This upper part was the plaid, which was used as a covering for the shoulders and body in wet weather, and when the use of both arms was required it was fastened across the breast with a brooch, often curiously enriched. A brooch was also used to fasten the plaid on the left shoulder. To attire himself in the belted plaid required on the part of the highlander no small amount of dexterity. The usual way was to lay it on the floor and after carefully arranging the folds to lie down upon it and then buckle it on. The lower end was fastened at the right hip. The utility of such a dress in the highlands is obvious, for the plaid rendered the man indifferent to storms and prepared to pass a night in the open air in the most inclement weather, while the loose undergarment enabled him to wade rivers or ascend mountains with equal ease. It was thus peculiarly adapted to the warrior, the hunter and the shepherd.—London Mail.

PRAIRIE DOGS.

Choked Up a River While Traveling From Oklahoma to Texas.

"The prairie dog migration from Oklahoma to southwestern Texas during July, 1874, eclipsed anything of that sort witnessed by white men in this country," said a veteran who saw it. "Millions of the frisky little barkers must have been in quest of new pastures or perhaps feared the approaching legions of home seekers would surely exterminate the dogs and plow up the dog towns. The prairie dog migration from the north to the southwest lasted six days during the month of July, 1874. The traveling dogs while crossing the Red river interfered to a great extent with the cattle that came to that stream to quench their thirst. Some cowboys that were on the banks of Red river during the time when the prairie dogs swam across say that the stream was choked full of the little rascals for many miles up and down the river. The thirsty cattle were either unable or unwilling to stick their mouths into the water through the moving mass of living prairie dogs. The cowboys were getting ready to drive the famishing stock to a distant stream, but the Red river became clear of the repelling swimmers after blocking the useful drinking place for about a week. It was generally supposed that the dogs halted when they had reached the staked plains of Texas."—Kansas City Times.

Herbine

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise. R. N. Andrews, editor and manager Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. Sold by W. M. Johnson, Gainesville, Fla., and J. C. Bishop, Alachua, Fla.

The Pin in England.

The date of the first manufacture of pins in England is shrouded in uncertainty, but it is authentically recorded that as early as 1464, when money was "tight," extensive cloth workers compelled their laborers to accept in payment for their work "pins, girdles and other unprofitable wares instead of money." The march of improvement had begun and kept on steadily until toward the middle of the sixteenth century pins began to win appreciation so high that statutes were enacted protecting their manufacture, and rigid laws were passed prohibiting the importation of numerous minor articles, including pins, gloves, knives, tailors' shears, scissors and irons. Up to this period female dress was fastened with ribbons, laces, clasps, hooks and eyes and skewers of brass, silver and gold. The latter were, in fact, pins without heads.—London Globe.

Had to Ward Off Old Age.

The most successful way of warding off the approach of old age is to maintain a vigorous digestion. This can be done by eating only food suited to your age and occupation, and when any disorder of the stomach appears take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct it. If you have a weak stomach or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these tablets to be just what you need. For sale by all druggists.
